Their generous bosoms all dangers despis'd, So highly, fo wifely, their Birth-ights they priz'd; We'll keep what they gave, we will pioufly keep, Nor frustrate their toils on the land and the deep-In FREEDOM we're born &c.

The Tree their own Hands had to LIBER'TY rear'd; They liv'd to behold growing strong and rever'd; With Transport they cry'd, " Now our wishes we gain, For our children shall gather the fruits of our pain"-In FREEDOM we're born &c.

Swarms of Placemen and Penfioners foon will appear Like Locusts deforming the Charms of the Year; Suns vainly will rife, Showers vainly descend, If we are to drudge for what others shall spend. In FREEDOM we're born, &c.
